

Praise & Wisdom Daily Bible Reading Schedule

This Bible reading plan wasn't actually my idea but was something I learned from Bill Gothard, founder of the Institute of Basic Life Principles, an organization that seeks to bring the principles of the Bible and give believers a way to practically apply them to their lives. Bill's work has helped me tremendously. If you haven't heard of it, I highly recommend that you check out the basic seminar (it's free) and can be found by following this link.

My wife and I have been working through this bible plan together and it has blessed our lives greatly as the Holy Spirit has spoken to us through these Psalms and Proverbs. Today, I felt the Holy Spirit nudging me to make this resource available for others so that you could join in as well.

The basic premise is that, whatever day of the month you are in you read that Psalms plus 30 until you run out of Psalms, and the Proverb for that day of the month as well. I've included a daily calendar to make it easier for everyone to follow along below:
